GORMAN'S
GRAND DEPOT

DR. REEVES
412 Spruce St., Scranton.

Dr. Reeves is now fully established at 412 Spruce street, Scranton. He has performed some wonderful cures and has gained the confidence of the public. He has come to STAY and will remain PERMANENTLY at his spruce street parlor. He has had long and varied experience in hospital and private practice and treats all acute and chronic diseases of men, women and children. He gives advice, sermons, and examinations FREE OF CHARGE. No one is turned away.

He, with his assistants, treat all diseases of the nervous system, diseases of the eye, ear, nose and throat, dyspepsia, rheumatism, listlessness, premature weakness or decay in both sexes, female weaknesses and irregularities, nervous debility, catarrh, tumors, cancers, eruptions, blood poisoning, etc., epilepsy, indigestion and errors of youth, lost manhood, eczema, scrofula, St. Vitus' dance, asthma, diseases of the heart, lungs, liver, kidneys, bladder, stomach, etc.

FEMALE DEPARTMENT.
The doctor has opened a female department for those who wish treatment exclusively for ailments peculiar to females, so that those whom "delicacy" has heretofore kept away may now receive the services of a "lady" whose treatment will prove her ability in such cases.

OFFER TO THE PUBLIC FOR "CATARRH"
Any one suffering with "Catarrh" who wishes to be PERMANENTLY and QUICKLY cured may receive FOUR MONTHS' TREATMENT FOR ONLY TEN DOLLARS. This offer holds good for thirty days. The doctor has discovered a SPECIFIC for this dreaded disease. You can treat and cure yourself and family with it at home. It never fails to cure. A trial treatment free.

Office hours: Daily, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Sundays, 10 to 12 and 2 to 4.
Take elevator in Christian's hat store, or steps.

Preparations are under way on an elaborate scale for the great fair of St. Thomas' congregation which opens in the basement of the church next Monday evening. It will undoubtedly be one of the grandest events of the season and will far eclipse anything of that nature ever held here. The solicitors who have been at work in and out of the city, and have been very cordially received and the number and the variety of the articles donated have never been exceeded. Among the principal articles are a grand piano, a parlor suite, bedroom suite, several stoves and many other pieces of valuable household furniture. There will be several contests and a gold watch will be disposed of by chance. Each evening during the continuance of the fair, a musical programme will be rendered and many of the best local singers have already been engaged for that purpose. In a day or two the basement will be decorated, electric lights will be added and the various booths will be erected. A decorative artist of note has been engaged to do this work and something very beautiful may be looked for. There will be many features at this fair which will make it a very desirable place to spend time and money. It will certainly be a great success.

It is said that the Lackawanna Transit company will begin work on its Laurel street line in a day or two. The poles and tools for workmen have been ordered and work will be commenced at the southern end of the borough. Every one will hope that the work will not be attended by such trouble as accompanied the laying of the track on Main street.

NORMAL NOTES.
On Saturday evening a large and enthusiastic audience greeted the participants in the opening meeting of the Minnesota society. The exercises opened with an instrumental duet by Misses Conn and Grey, followed by a musical recitation by Miss Newhart, which was greatly appreciated. An essay, "Civics in Our Schools," was then read by Miss Rooder. "Hey Rub, or a Day Circus," was given by Zacharias Snodgrass, who was obliged to respond to an encore. Miss Laura Evans, in her vocal solo, showed ability and hope to heat her many times during the coming year. The tariff was the subject of Mr. Ellenberger's oration, which was delivered in a dramatic and forcible manner.

Miss Johnson's recital of "Custer's Last Charge" gave evidence of talent and power. One of the most pleasing features of the evening was the vocal duet by Miss Edwards and Mr. Megley who were encored with characteristic normal vim. The "Bible book containing many interesting articles was read by Miss Katharine Hicks. The laughable farce, "Declined With Thanks" was well played. The following is the cast: Mr. Gritty, Elias Bachman; Captain Tannan, R. J. Mulligan; Edward Mallingford, Geo. Bickley; Samuel S. Kraft, Theodore Fegley; Susie, Miss Reap; Sally, Miss Tally; Florence Halliday, Miss Eliza Gray; Helia Halliday, Miss Covam.
